

CULTURE AS TREATMENT SYMPOSIUM

CONNECTING OUR HEALTH TO OUR CREATION STORIES

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Community members, service providers, Elders, and students
- Anyone with a desire to learn more about Aboriginal culture and healing

FEATURED GUEST SPEAKERS:

- Tom Porter (Mohawk), Spokesman and Chief Spiritual Leader;
- Madeline Dion Stout (Cree), Aboriginal Health Leader and Scholar;
- Jerry Saddleback (Cree), Language and Culture Teacher;
- Basil Johnston (Ojibway), Writer, Storyteller, Teacher, and Scholar;
- Stephen Augustine (Mi'qmaq), Curator of Ethnology, The Museum of Civilization;
- Jan Longboat (Mohawk), Traditional Herbalist, Teacher and Caregiver
- Leah Dorion (Métis), Artist and Educator
- And many more Elders, Scholars & Artists

WORKSHOPS INCLUDE:

- First Nations Creation Stories
- Traditional Practices
- Healing and Grieving
- Traditional Medicines
- Art as Healing
- Aboriginal Wellness Model — Medicine Wheel

REGISTRATION:

Please call to register or for more information

Sheila Lapratt

Cultural Program Coordinator

Wabano Centre for Aboriginal Health

613-748-0657 ext. 211

slapratt@wabano.com

SCHEDULE:

Friday, November 20 — 9 AM - 7 PM

Creation Stories — A Healthy Journey is Knowing Where We Come From

Saturday, November 21 — 9 AM - 5 PM

Connecting Our Health to Our Creation Stories

CONFERENCE FEE:

- $60 per day, early bird registration before October 20th, 2009
- $75 per day, registration fee after October 20th, 2009
- Lunch and dinner provided

EVENT LOCATION:

Vanier Richelieu Community Centre

300 des Pere-Blancs Ave., Ottawa

OC Transpo Bus Route #5

W W W . W A B A N O . C O M